

Household
adults

live

with

A growing proportion of young adults now live with their parents – four in ten families with children in their 20s have at least one living with them - 40%

•

- o Young adults need information about schemes to